COOLIDGE HEARS
HOOVER REPORT
Secretary Gives Summary of Work in River Area
Rehabilitation Progress Told
at Luncheon
Longworth Also Guest, But Politics Undiscussed

BY ROBERT B. ARMSTRONG
Times Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Sept. 15. (Exclusive)—President Coolidge today entertained two prominent Republicans at luncheon, but during the entire meal not a word of politics was mentioned. The President's guests were Secretary of Commerce Hoover, who returned this morning from his final trip of inspection of the Mississippi flood area, and Speaker of the House Longworth.

The President received from Secretary Hoover a complete report of the existing situation in the flood district, and with it the additional suggestion that an extra session of Congress at this time would not aid the district in its difficulties. Secretary Hoover stressed the necessity for legislation in the coming session to prevent further flood damage in the Mississippi and Arkansas sections and urged the President to clear summary of the existing conditions there at this time.

HOOVER'S REPORT
Briefly summarized, these facts were covered in the report of Secretary Hoover to the President: "All of the flood sufferers now have been returned from concentration camps to their homes. There are about 46,000 still dependent for food supplies who are being rationed at home. Therefore, the 614,000 at one time dependent on public support, 92 per cent now are providing for themselves.

"In the work of rehabilitation, in all of the 120 counties touched by the flood a house-to-house canvass has been completed in determination of the needs of the people with the exception of nine counties where the surveys as yet are incomplete. "The needs of those unable to provide for themselves in repairs and building of houses, in furniture, in food for fall planting, live stock, chickens and clothing for children and adults, have been determined and the work of supply is in progress. The county committees in 111 counties have estimated the entire cost of their requirements. Their estimates have been accepted and the money with which to complete this rehabilitation has been placed at the disposal of the committees. Reserves have been created to cover the costs in counties whose investigations are incomplete. This work should be complete by the end of October.

HEALTH BEING GUARDED
"There will be some continuing desolation and funds to cover the estimated cost of food and feed for their support until the first of January, have been placed at the disposal of the committees. "After providing for this rehabilitation work and after providing for the destitute until the first of January, we estimate that there will remain of the Red Cross funds something over $1,000,000 at that date. "There will be some further desolation in about twenty counties over the winter. What further funds may be required by the Red Cross for this purpose, if any, cannot be determined until later in the year. "A strong health unit in each county is being established through the State health authorities, and has been financed for the next eighteen months jointly by the States, the counties, the Rockefeller Foundation and the United States Public Health Service and furnished with supplies by the Red Cross. These health units are engaged in a vigorous campaign against typhoid, malaria, pellagra, etc., and should permanently improve the health conditions of this territory. With the exception of a few counties public health now is

HORSE'S SENSE BEATS HUMAN'S
Oscar Refuses to Get Panicky as Stable Burns to Ashes;
Walks Calmly Into Room of Adjoining Hotel;
Occupant Leaps Wildly Out Window

CHICAGO, Sept. 15. (Exclusive)—Oscar, a gifted horse housed in Garret Brothers' Training Company's stable, always had borne the reputation of thinking and acting quickly, and last night, when some careless employee tossed a cigarette stub into a bundle of loose hay, Oscar had the opportunity to prove his intelligence, and did it. All the other horses were out on an excavation job and came back tired and worn to find their home in ashes. Ordinarily, horses in a fire and they will dash back into a burning building and have to be blindfolded before they can be led to safety. But not so with Oscar. He had no fear of fire if he could get away from it. He had "horse sense" and used it. The fire was creeping toward him and the smoke was stifling, but he moved over to a door opening on a shed roof and stepped out. The fire became hotter and Oscar proceeded over the shed roof to a large French window of a hotel, adjoining the stable, and clambered through. This explains why Fred Vicker, asleep in the room, sprang wildly to the telephone and informed the clerk of the hotel that there was a horse in his room. "Better change your bootleggers," advised the clerk. "Throw the horse out."

"Then jump out of the window," said the calouse clerk. When the firemen arrived they found Vicker on the pavement with a sprained ankle. Oscar, the intelligent horse, had to be eased out of the hotel with a block and tackle.

REPAIRING OF LEVEES
"Owing to the second flood and other causes probably 2,000,000 acres of crop land will make no substantial money returns this year. Some feed and vegetables will be produced upon the waste lands, but they will contribute to support over winter. "Organization has been initiated to procure co-ordinated action between mortgage holders, local banks and the emergency finance corporation to assist the financial support of the farmers who have lost this year's crop to plant and mature the next year.

"At a special session of the Louisiana Legislature measures have been passed which will give effective relief to flooded areas of that State. "The Mississippi River commission and the engineer corps have initiated work in repair of all levee breaks under Federal jurisdiction and are giving aid to the repair of other levees. The State engineer is repairing State levees. Emergency repairs are in course of provision against possible rise of the Mississippi in October, and all important levee breaks will apparently be closed before December 1. "The greatest measure of rehabilitation is, of course, the establishment of a system of effective flood control for such a measure will greatly restore confidence, security and credit."

EXTRA SESSION
STILL SEEN UNLIKELY
WASHINGTON, Sept. 15. (AP)—Additional views on the question of calling a special session of the new Congress were obtained today by President Coolidge, but there is no indication that he is inclined to change his opinion that such a session is unnecessary. Speaker Longworth, who was a luncheon guest at the White House, said the weight of his own opinion to that of Senator Curtis of Kansas and Representative Clegg of Connecticut, the Republican leaders of the Senate and House, that there is no necessity for assembling Congress before December 8.

Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, also discussed the question with the President but expressed no opinion, although it is known that he sees little reason for a special meeting. Senator Nye of North Dakota, a member of the Republican insurgent bloc, which will hold the balance of power in the new Senate, urged the President to issue a call for a special session. Representatives Ransmeyer and Cole of Iowa and Hoch of Kansas, Republicans, called on the President to welcome him back to the capital. Mr. Cole said he volunteered the information that the three see no necessity for a special session. While he did not see Mr. Coolidge, Senator Caraway, Democrat, Arkansas, who returned to Washington today, said Congress should be assembled before December to hasten the work of rehabilitation in the States swept by the Mississippi flood. He reiterated that the President should have acted during the flood last April.

Informing the Chief Executive that the House Ways and Means Appropriations and Interstate Commerce Committees are ready to function, Mr. Longworth said it had been his experience that these committees could accomplish much more of the preliminary work for the session with Congress not in session as they then could devote all of their time to the specific problems before them.

WOMAN DEMOCRATS
GET POSTAL WARNING
WASHINGTON, Sept. 15. (AP)—The woman's national Democratic Club was informed today by Postoffice Department officials that the club's national campaign slogan contest in which an entrance fee of one dollar is required, is being conducted through the mails in violation of lottery laws. The Postoffice Department is convinced, it is said, that the project involves simply an error in judgment, and is willing to drop the case provided the contest is conducted without requirement of an entrance fee.

TWO PORTLAND MEN
REINDICTED IN FRAUD
PORTLAND (Or.) Sept. 15. (AP)—A new indictment against Emory Olmstead and J. E. Wheeler, to replace one declared faulty recently by Federal Court, was returned this afternoon by the Federal grand jury. Olmstead, who was president of the Northwestern National Bank, and Wheeler, a lumberman, who formerly published a newspaper, were charged with conspiracy in connection with asserted misapplication of funds of the bank.

Von Thiele, wanted at Oroville, Cal., on a forgery charge. Evidence indicates that von Thiele walked out of the jail through a door that had been left unlocked and possibly open.

MEXICO STORM
LOSSES DENIED
Supposed Devastated Areas
Reported Unscathed
Intensity of Disturbance
Declared Exaggerated
"Cyclone" Said to Have Been
Only Severe Rain

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 15. (Exclusive)—Direct communication today with cities in several States reported desolated in whole or part by a hurricane in dispatches emanating from an American border town made them virtually unscathed by the supposed "cyclonic disturbance." Government departments have received dispatches that tell of a storm lashing the west coast more than a week ago and doing some slight damage, chiefly to shipping facilities, but causing no loss of life. Press dispatches received here direct from the supposed devastated areas report no such casualties as those mentioned in the American reports, and indicate that the intensity of the storm and the extent of the damage have been greatly exaggerated.

TORRENTIAL RAINS
Official information relates that a severe wind and rain storm swept over the Pacific Coast and in points reached the interior cities. Shipping at Manzanillo suffered to an extent. The Mexican government Weather Bureau has issued an account of the course of the storm. This account states that the disturbance followed along the west coast, penetrating to interior points and the central plateau region. The cities of Mazatlan, Guaymas, La Paz, San Blas, Acapulco and several smaller places bore the brunt of the storm, which was characterized chiefly by a torrential downpour. The storm swept across the States of Coahuila, Guerrero, Michoacan, Colima, Jalisco, Sinaloa, and Sonora and the Territory of Lower California. Communication has been established with the principal seaports and cities in all of these States, and has failed to confirm any of the reports accredited to the American sources.

PLANTATION ESCAPES
It is denied here that the storms damaged El Hule banana plantations along the Papagallopan River. The annual river floods occurred early this month, but receded without causing loss to the plantations in the El Hule Papagallopan territory or those of Cia Prutera Transcontinental in the same region. It is pointed out here that several of the points at which heavy damage was supposed to have been wrought are much closer to Mexico City than to the American border, must be carried on through this city. These places include Salina Cruz and other southern points.

Woman Cleared
in Murder Trial
BLUEFIELD (W. Va.) Sept. 15. (AP)—Mollie Whit, 35 years of age, was back in the poorhouse of Tazewell county, Virginia, today, acquitted of killing Scott McGrodder, 73, there six weeks ago in a quarrel over a tattered bed cover. McGrodder was stabbed.

But though her testimony, given in a Tazewell Circuit Court yesterday, her husband, Gus Whit, a blind banjo player, will be tried on a murder charge in November. Husband and wife were indicted together. Whit had expressed the hope his wife would be convicted with him because he wanted her to wait on him.

ASSAULT VICTIM DIES
DORA (Ala.) Sept. 15. (AP)—Regaining consciousness enough to tell her husband that she had been criminally attacked by a negro, Mrs. Mary Truitt, her head crushed with a piece of slag, died on the way to a hospital here today after being found at the edge of underbrush fifty yards from the Truitt home.

RABBIT PUNCHES
BY PAUL LOWRY
A BOARD THE CHIEF, EN ROUTE TO CHICAGO
Somewhere Between Winslow, Ark., and Gallup, N. M., Sept. 15.—After a morning given over to a discussion of Mr. Tex Rickard's "battle of magnificent distances," one weighty point has been developed. It has been mutually agreed that no body can successfully settle all the arguments over the pending battle except the Messrs. Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney when they step into the ring at Soldiers' Field next Thursday night. Those who reached this portentous decision after long hours of iron and cans include a group of distinguished Los Angeles citizens. Of course, there may be a slight difference of opinion in some quarters as to just how distinguished some of these citizens are, but nevertheless their names are presented for the perusal of the kind readers of this column in a true spirit of brotherly love. Inasmuch as these gentlemen have all departed for the feed pen, I can write freely without fear of physical violence being visited upon me. It is a queer group, queer as to their opinions about the fight and at utter variance with one another as to the outcome. Mike Lyman, who has entered extensively to the wants of Los Angeles pleasure seekers, can see nobody but Tunney with the strong possibility of a knockout in the champion's favor. Chuck Ward, his traveling companion, who came equipped with golf club and a nineteenth hole, is mildly favorable to Dempsey, and if a knockout is delivered he can see nobody but Dempsey delivering it. On the other hand, Frank Kerwin, who came bustling down

Linemen Powerful and Beefy But Lack Experience
BY BRAVEN DYER
Doing things in his customary decisive manner, Coach Howard Jones named a prospective Trojan varsity less than one hour after the opening turnout of the season yesterday morning. The boys had hardly become reacquainted to fondling the platoon before the U.S.C. mentor had them lined up in battle formation. Approximately sixty-five varsity athletes greeted Jones and his assistants at Bovard Field after breakfast, with the afternoon turnout augmented by one or two late arrivals. The opening line-up of the year, which means little or nothing because all the positions are as wide open as a yodel's mouth, presented the following players: Charley Boren and Tony Stepanovich, ends; Jesse Hibbs and Jim Moser, tackles; Bert Heiser and Chick Galloway, guards; John Fox, center; Don Williams, quarterback; Russ Saunders and Don Moore, halfbacks, and Harry Edelson, fullback.

Southern California Conference Football Teams Get Down to Business in First Workouts

BRUINS DISPLAY HUSKY GRIDMEN

Spaulding Has Great Line-up of Veterans Back

Nixon Puts Pomona Hopefuls Through Stiff Pace

Exandine Has Smart Turnout on Occidental Grid

Created by a flock of meaty veterans, Coach Bill Spaulding's little time putting his O.C.L.A. gridmen through a stiff workout that started yesterday morning and lasted late in the afternoon. The boys looked so good in fact that Spaulding permitted his athletes to scrimmage a bit.

Coach Burrill Sturges took the variety under his wing. The first string lined up as follows: Back and Henderson, ends; Hudson and Peterson, tackles; Davis and Gould, guards; Epstein, center; Eirlebach, quarter; LaBuerche and Fleming, halves; and Fields, fullback, completed the array of veteran talent.

The variety lined up against a team that was composed for the most part of last year's fresh outfit. The sophomores taken on a lot of weight, and some of the athletes look good for variety. John Brown and Noble, guards; French, center; Bauman, end; Rumm, quarter, and Solomon and Simpson, half, are all likely to see service during the coming season. Epstein weighs 215 pounds, but French, who tips the scales at close to 200, is already giving him a battle. Rumm towers over back and Henderson, the regular, and appears to be a center. He is also quite a punter.

Spaulding had several dozen gridmen out in suits. He will have the biggest Bruin team in history, and one of the heaviest in the conference.

SAGEHENS REPORT

CLAREMONT, Sept. 15. (Exclusive) Pomona opened its 1927 football season today, rounding the ball at 8 o'clock. Coach Eugene Nixon came on Alumni Field for the first time this year and had some forty-five varsity candidates lined up, and it was close to six before it was all over. Line Coach Heath and Freshman Coach Merrill were also on hand to greet the Sagehen gridmen in their opening workout.

The indications of a record turnout run true. The field was fairly crowded with blue-jerseyed gridmen, and the rush here over yet. The varsity leader men are all back, but quite a number of subs from last year haven't hit the campus yet, and so the number will probably range close to sixty by the end of the week.

Nixon didn't have a great deal to say to the boys, but he had a lot for them to do. There wasn't anything rough on the program, but three deliberate wind-building and toughening exercises were there in full force.

LIGHT HEAVYWEIGHT TITLE CLAIMED FOR LEO LOMSKI

SPOKANE (Wash.) Sept. 15. (P)—A claim to the world's light-heavyweight championship was made here today on behalf of Leo Lomski of Gray's Harbor, Wash. by his manager, Eddie E. Eicher. Discounting Jimmy Slattery's claim to the title by virtue of his having beaten Maxie Rosenbloom in a contest recognized by the National Boxing Association as a championship affair, Eicher pointed out that Lomski defeated Rosenbloom last summer by a much more decisive margin than Slattery did.

and Mal Archibald were all present. The sophomores, Hartman, Jandy, Byer, Bright, Tucker, Mitchell, Hargreaves and Hughes were there. The varsity subs, Hadham, Miller, Gregory, Colley, Backstrand and Bell all appeared, and so there was quite a party.

Some few players who got quite a bit of experience last year aren't returning. William Ray, the speedy end, is captaining the track team this year, and so doesn't want to do anything else. Ken Finney is too busy presiding over the student body. He was sub quarter. Bob Nolder's back, injured in an auto accident at the close of last year, isn't "shape yet, close of last year, isn't "shape yet.

BENGALS ROAR

Coach Albert A. Exandine, Indian gridiron mentor at Occidental College, greeted some forty-odd candidates for the Tiger variety at Patterson Field yesterday in the first official practice of the season. Oxy's grid coaches were fairly surprised with the first day's roster of athletes, missing not one player with exception of those who were lost through graduation and a trio or so of sophomores from last season's champion penguin eleven.

All of the Tiger lettermen were on hand in the first workouts yesterday. Rafe Brobst, quarter; Ward Switzer, Mike Fumo, Jack Switzer, Mike Hunt and Johnny Kierhart, backfield veterans, and William Popple, Ted Ellsworth, Weddington, all lineemen. In addition, Harris Hinch, tackle of two years ago; Bob Williamson, sub-guard; Lee Haworth, and Laurence Miller, both members of the squad of last year, and Al Clayton, a transfer, were among the first day's present candidates.

Several of the members of the championship freshman eleven were on hand also. Alan DeKoon, end, Ed Beebe, captain and tackle, and Mike Rowe, half, Parkhill, Keith Woz, Johnny Manuli and Glenn Roselle, star fullback.

Exandine started real work about 4 o'clock. Leaving Assistant Coach Anderson to handle the backfield, Exandine took in hand some twenty line candidates and drilled the crew in plugging, a bit of tackling, and most of fundamentals. Anderson started the backs in a bit of passing, line bucks, fundamentals and kicking.

ENGINEERS OUT

At Caltech yesterday afternoon twenty-five lucky young men tramped around the turf at Tournament Park in the first practice of the football season. Coach Gus Stanton was not on hand to greet his charges for the coming season, but Assistant Coach R. Z. Musselman took the boys in hand and gave them a short talk before turning them loose with the

*****
Among the returning letter men who put in appearance yesterday were Capt. Bill Mohr, Elmer Muir, Guy Chibbert, Bill Cravitz, Phil Durfee, Dick Folsom, Ed Johnson-Roché and Charles (Pat) Lewis. Lewis was quite a foot-ball player last season and much is expected from him this year.

Nad was also quite a help to the Engineers in their battles on the gridiron last season and Foxey Grande Stanton expects great things of him this year.

Line Coach Lieutenant L. J. Clatridge, a former West Point star, had the boys dashing around the field with the ball in a short workout after they reported to the assistant coach. A number of likely looking freshmen also showed their faces and forms during the afternoon's center. Coach Stanton expects great things of him this year.

town Joe Gans, another steady protégé of Flynn's, finished the round for White. Then came duckey Joe Williams and finally Benny Kruger. After it was all over, there was a calm which seemed to indicate the experts believed Jack and Leo might still be holding out on some of those midnight secrets. So everybody shrouded Leo to put on another show for the critics tomorrow night. Maybe it is that, but he is all for the rest of the training stretch, it was announced.

BROWN WINS OVER NOVEY AT CULVER

Newsboy Brown defeated Frankie Novey in the ten-round main event at Culver City last night in a fast go. In the semi-wind-up, Don Long knocked out Young Joe Rivers in the second round.

Bob Waltham won over Al Conier in six rounds. Al De Chain stopped Harry Roemer in the first round of the opener.

PINNAGAN BEATS GRIMES

NEW YORK, Sept. 15. (P)—Honey Boy Pinnagan, Boston lightweight, took the decision over Billy Grimes, Australian, in a ten-round bout at Madison Square Garden tonight. Neither was in danger or bad shape. Pinnagan weighed 135, Grimes 127½.

RED SHIRTS AND RIFLES IN ORDER AS DEER SEASON OPENS

Red hats or shirts should now be dug out of the old moth ball box and the pet rifle looked over for the opening of deer season today. If you can't see its horns, she hasn't any. Make sure it's a buck.

*****
The season for deer opens today in Districts 4, 4½ and 4¾, which means that shooting will be permitted in Los Angeles, San Bernardino, Orange, Riverside, San Diego, Imperial, Inyo, Kern, Tulare, Mono and Fresno counties in Southern California.

Conditions are favorable for a good deer season, according to Ceph Salisbury, the outfitting authority of the Automobile Club of Southern California, who has just completed a scouting trip covering many of the likely deer-shooting localities of the southern part of the State.

Following is a list of locations where deer may be found in Southern California, according to the Automobile Club outing bureau chief.

"Kern, Inyo and Mono counties seem to have the most deer. The Lower Kern River watershed is always good. Out of Fairview deer hunters get their buck from one to two miles from camp. Many fine meadows are easily reached by trail five to fifteen miles back. Beach Meadows and the South Fork are also reached from Fairview.

to the train at the next minute with a market bag similar to those which all good housewives attach themselves to when they go to the market. For the purpose of classification hereafter shall be known as "Market Bag" Retwin, opines that if Dempsey is possessed of certain physical qualifications which he certainly did not have at Philadelphia last year, he will spin the champion on his ear.

A still different opinion is expressed by Mr. Sidney Ziff of the Express, who declares that his mind is free and open to what he may discover at the respective training camps of the Meers. Tunny and Dempsey at Chicago. Of all the debating, grannies, Heri Lyman possesses the most fluent flow of language, and generally enough to talk down all the opposition, who give up from sheer exhaustion.

However, Heri Lyman has this in his favor. He represents big money which wants to see down on Tunny. Big money in this case is Baron Long of San Diego, who doesn't put it down unless it looks like a good business proposition. And the Baron said to Mike before Mike left, as Mike, that betting on Tunny is the best business proposition that he has encountered for a long time.

"Place $20,000 to $40,000 for me on Tunny," said the Baron nonchalantly Mike. "It's easy money." Wherefore Mike is going to follow instructions, and the knowledge that he is in the champion's camp for Tunny probably has something to do with Mike's interest in the fight.

However, Mike has attached the fight from all angles. Dempsey's condition at Philadelphia last year, his age, his bad leg, his win over Sharkey, Tunny's comparative youth, superior boxing skill, offensive and defensive, his kaycee over Bartley Madden and Tommy Oibbons, the confidence that is born of a champion, and he can see no reason for picking Dempsey over Tunny.

So there you are, if you like the opinion of an analyst, but in spite of the split about the respective abilities of the Meers, Tunny and Dempsey this group of intellectual Angelenos is agreed on one thing, and that is the fight should be refereed by a man of George Blake's type. Chicago has the reputation of being without the services of a single competent third man in the ring, and George Blake would certainly fill the bill.

The title-holder said he was "unopposed" to the announcement. The Rickard made that Gene was to receive $1,000,000 flat for the battle of the distant vista. The "pernicious envy" aroused in the breasts of ordinary men was bad for the fight game, he thought.

Despite the recent knockout victories George Godfrey, negro heavyweight, has scored over Jimmy MacLoney and Monte Munn, Tunny cannot see the imminence of another black menace. Godfrey is not dangerous, "because there too many difficulties in the way before he becomes a potential challenger," the champion said.

OF KING
John Burton as a burglar learned a lot about locks, he explained in court when arraigned on a charge of breaking into a house.
As he approached 65 years of age he decided to retire and invent the Burton burglar-proof lock, which even he could not pick. To raise funds to patent it he decided to "pull just one more job," and was caught, he told Judge Emanuel Miller.
He said he is willing to plead guilty to the charge but asked a continuance until November 7, next, to attend the patenting of the lock, which he figures will bring in enough royalties to brighten his life in prison by providing tobacco, magazines and other simple needs. Judge Miller granted his request.

VILLAGERS HAIL TAFT'S BIRTHDAY

'Le Bonhomme' Visited by French-Canadian Friends on Seventieth Anniversary
MURRAY BAY (Que.) Sept. 15. (AP)—This little village rejoiced today in celebrating the seventieth birthday of William Howard Taft, Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court. While the celebration at the Taft summer home was of a private nature, many of the French-Canadian villagers, with whom "Le Bonhomme Taft" has been popular for many years, considered it their duty and privilege to extend to the Chief Justice their good wishes.
In exceedingly good humor and obviously in the best of health Mr. Taft smilingly replied, "I am doing the best I can," when questioned as to his health.

HAREM TROUSERS AND JEWELLED STOMACHERS NEXT FOR WOMEN

CHICAGO, Sept. 15. (Exclusive)—"Harem trousers" and "jewelled stomachers" are the latest creations for the women's 1928 wardrobe as shown with the opening of the semi-annual session of the Fashion Art League of America, following a formal dinner and style show at the Congress Hotel.

The 1928 skirt is adapted from men's Turkish trousers; rather, perhaps, from Turkish men's trousers, or pantaloons! The evening gown with the pantaloons or voluminous bloomers skirt, produced by closing the skirt around each knee, is worn with a bolero and a jeweled stomacher of typically Egyptian design. Contrary to the copied Turkish mode is another evening frock made of cloud-blue or straw lace wrapped over an Egyptian skirt of fresh tulle and open down the left side. For trimming on the shoulder and side the designer attached large chrysanthemums in four shades, from steel to deep orchid. In front the skirt is knee length, while in the back it just escapes the floor.

CHINA CHOPS OFF HEAD OF BOLD BANDIT
Four Hold Up Banquet, and Rob Famous Actor, but Death Follows Capture

PEKING, Sept. 15. (AP)—The head of a robber hung up on a pole in one of Peking's principal thoroughfares, adjoining the legation quarter, this afternoon as the result of a daring descent by four men on a Chinese bandit last night in an attempt to capture a large sum of money from Mei Lang Pong, China's most famous actor.

In a pistol battle with police the robber chief was killed and one of the men, the man executed today, captured. Chang Han-Chiu, Secretary in the Ministry of Finance, who was a guest, was wounded and died later. Learning that he was appearing as an entertainer at a banquet at the residence of Pang Kunshang, former governor of the Bank of China, the robbers went there.

They entered the banquet hall, covered the guests, who were leading Chinese financiers, and demanded $300,000 Mexican. Considerable parleying followed. Mei offered $30,000 to the robbers, who agreed to accept this. The actor signed a check for that amount and the robbers left the hall. Meanwhile, a servant had slipped out and called the police, who arrived just as the robbers were leaving.

A pistol battle followed in which one robber was killed, one captured and two escaped. The captive was summarily tried and ordered beheaded publicly near the scene of the crime. A large throng witnessed the execution.

PRINTING NEED CITED
Industry's Shortage of Feminine Skill
Told by Economist

NEW YORK, Sept. 15. (AP)—The printing industry is much in need of feminine skill in all grades from executive positions to manual tasks, Miss Lucina M. Powell, research economist for the New York Typing and Printing Association, today told the forty-first annual convention of the United Typothetate of America.

Bindery workers, linotype and monotype operators, proof readers, and executives, are all in need of feminine sex, she said.

"Although the industry has relatively few women in its ranks today there are a few who are doing very successful work in the service departments of printing, concerns which furnish copy, layouts and so forth for advertising purposes," said Miss Powell.

The artistic side of the industry is beginning to make an appeal to women and perhaps in the next generation women will have at least their fair quota among the notable typographers.

NEW ZEALAND TARIFF HITS AMERICAN FILMS
AUCKLAND (New Zealand) Sept. 15. (AP)—Determination to foster British films at the expense of the American product is expressed by the revised New Zealand tariff, in which the general duty of a penny a foot is increased to three pence (4 cents) in the case of American films and removed entirely in the case of the British product. The revised tariff also increases the preference on other British goods. Most of the changes are upward in the general scale, ranging from 5 to 30 per cent.

SALES OF CHAIN GROCERY MOUNT

West States Piggy Wiggly Business Growing

Volume for Eight Months of Year Up $3,893,163

New Units Omitted Leaves 10 Per Cent Increase

Averaging nearly $1,100,000 a month, sales of the Piggy Wiggly Western States Company for the eight months ended August 31, last, exceeded the total for the corresponding period of last year by 11 per cent, according to figures issued yesterday by A. C. Jones, president of the company.

For the eight months just passed the Piggy Wiggly Company reported sales aggregating $8,272,646, as compared with total sales amounting to $6,907,500.25 in the corresponding eight months period of 1926, a gain of $1,365,145.39, or 19.76 per cent. Sales of the company for the month of August, last, amounted to $1,030,000, an increase of $479,912.17, or approximately 48 per cent, over aggregate sales of $550,087.83 in the corresponding month of last year, the report shows. August sales, however, were slightly less than the total of $1,112,650.05 in July, but this decrease was due to less business days in August.

The earnings of the company in the current year, according to Mr. Jones, are showing a substantial increase from month to month. For the first six months of this year net profits, after all charges, but before taxes, amounted to $1,049,243.08, as compared with $627,972.85 in the first half of 1926, an increase of $421,270.23, or 67 per cent. In the first half of this year the company operated forty-eight new stores, bringing the total to 210, as compared with 162 in the first half of 1926. The growth of the Piggy Wiggly business, Mr. Jones states, is that, with the elimination of the sales of all stores opened within twelve months, the volume of business done each week shows approximately 10 per cent better than the same week a year ago.

LONDON, Sept. 15. (By wireless)—Markets here were stagnant most of today awaiting details of the conversion loan, and at the same time the continued wet weather is not assisting any in raising the level of cheerfulness.

At a meeting of the Callos Pruders' Association yesterday the chairman strongly criticized the adverse effect of heavy taxation and legislative tendencies on the country's industrial prosperity.

Money continued stringent and stocks dropped, but improvement was expected after details of the government's conversion program was known. Brazilian exchange was at good demand as a result of sinking fund purchase and talk of a new loan, while Dutch exchange moved in our favor.

Rubber stocks were inclined to dullness, though they were not materially affected by cables reporting large purchases of Brazilian rubber lands by Henry Ford.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15. (AP)—Adams Express Company plans an issue of 100,000 shares of 5 per cent cumulative preferred stock, $100 par, which stockholders are asked to approve, to be offered to common-stockholders for conversion in the ratio of one and seven-tenths shares of preferred for each share of common.

To Address Liens

H. V. Adams, escrow officer of the Glendale branch of the Los Angeles-First National Trust and Savings Bank, was the principal speaker at the regular luncheon yesterday of the Belvedere Gardenia Lions' Club. His subject was "The Medicine of Music."

W. Freeland, chief teller of the Belvedere Gardenia branch of the Los Angeles-First National, was chairman of the day.

PACIFIC LIGHTING YIELD LOW

Capitalization Revision and Dividend Expectations Boost Price; Rate Not Fixed Yet

BY EARLE E. CROWE

In the current prices for Pacific Lighting Corporation common is a pertinent illustration of the extent to which investment returns are normally pushed out of line by speculative enthusiasm. The stock is selling around 57 1/2, where it returns about 2.7 per cent to the investor.

Whether the stock is worth this price will depend on the action the directors take next February, when they will meet to fix the rate on the new 10 par stock. The next dividend due on November 15 will be at the same rate as on the old stock, but the February payment undoubtedly will be raised. At least this is what the stockholders have been given to understand.

THE INTEREST IN THE SAME

The reduction in par value by which the stockholders receive a total of 10 shares of no par stock is not a legitimate factor in the calculation of value, although it has given prominence to the speculation. Whether the action as far as the common stockholders are concerned is a ten-for-one split-up, or a 100 stock dividend, as variously described, has no connection with the equity of the stockholders position. They simply have ten shares now, representing the same interest in the assets of the company as they previously represented.

Raising the dividend on the new shares is something else again. On the new 10 par common capitalization, the equivalent of the old $16 annual dividend of 16 per cent is increased to $1.60, the equivalent of the old stock would be $1.60, or an increase of $4 a share on the old $12 stock.

Even at $2, the return on the new stock, assuming 57 1/2, the equivalent of 3 1/2 per cent, which is giving the price of capital rather a low rate of return. The explanation for these prices may, of course, lie in the expectation of more favorable dividend news or other developments.

From the point of view of earnings, Pacific Lighting's market record is not dissimilar from any number of other utility and industrial enterprises. Investment returns fully as low and lower are attached to nearly all the leaders in the New York market, prevalent chiefly on the ease of money rates on call loans. Earnings in most cases are plainly overvalued.

From the point of view of earnings, Pacific Lighting is well fortified. Its operating properties, the Northwest Light and Power Company, Gas and Southern Counties Gas, have been turning in remarkable monthly reports this year of increased revenues, and it is possible that the holding company plans to increase its own income substantially by increasing the rates on the common stocks of these subsidiaries. Last year Pacific Lighting earned $15.85 on the common.

Los Angeles Gas is doing its share on the basis of the twelve months ended July 31, last. Earnings on the common totaled $24.91, compared with $10.04 in the previous twelve months. All of the common is owned by the holding company.

Idaho Utility Unit on Foshay String

W. B. Foshay Company of Minneapolis, Minn., has purchased the properties of the Northwest Light and Power Company, which company serves Wallace, Idaho, and adjacent territory with electric light, power and water. The Foshay company purchased this property for the Public Utilities Consolidated Corporation and it is a part of a large group of utility properties going into that corporation shortly.

The deal was consummated Monday in Spokane, Wash. Operation of the property has already been taken over.

SUGAR EXPECTED TO CUT STOCK MELON

NEW YORK, Sept. 15. (AP)—Directors of South Porto Rico Sugar Company are expected to consider a 10 per cent common-stock dividend at their meeting about October 5. Frank Dillingham, president, told stockholders last June such a distribution of November was contemplated and estimated earnings for 1927 at $5.50 a share in the common-stock outstanding after the stock dividend.

SHOE SALES GAIN

NEW YORK, Sept. 15. (AP)—Sales of International Shoe Company are running $7,700,000 ahead of last year, August shipments totaled $14,477,000, the best August the company has had.

AUTOMOBILE PRODUCTION

The above curves show deviations from computed "normals," with seasonal fluctuations and secular trends eliminated. In general, building contracts have moved first, auto production second and electric power production third. Of particular interest are the movements in 1926 and 1927, during which time the building and auto curves have fallen below the electric power curve which has remained well above "normal." The building curve does not include civil engineering work, which has shown big increases in 1926 and 1927, causing a continuous moderate increase in total dollar expenditures for all construction.

OFFERING OF FOOD HOUSE ON MARKET

Securities of A. E. Staley Manufacturing Company Will be Floated Today

For the purpose of refunding securities of a higher interest rate and to provide additional working capital, A. E. Staley Manufacturing Company, the second largest manufacturer of corn products in this country, has sold an issue of $8,000,000 of first mortgage bonds at 95 per cent, sinking-fund gold bonds to a banking group headed by Blair & Co., Inc. The bonds, dated September 1, 1927, and due September 1, 1942, will be offered today at 90 and accrued interest.

During the past twenty-nine years, the company has accumulated assets of $16,110,970 from an initial investment of $1,000,000. Sales in 1926 were $10,765,130, an increase of more than 50 per cent over sales in 1925. For the first five years of its existence, the company has earned an average of 1.5 times the interest charges annually on its loans, and in 1926, 7 1/2 times the same charges.

Proceeds of this financing will enable the company to retire $2,284,000 of first mortgage 6 1/2 per cent bonds, reimburse the treasury for plant additions aggregating $2,000,000, and provide additional working capital. The liens will be secured by a first mortgage on the entire real estate, buildings and equipment now owned, appraised at $12,575,000. Plants at Decatur, Ill., have a grinding capacity of 50,000 bushels of corn daily, and a new elevator with storage capacity of 3,000,000 bushels is now practically completed.

PROPHET SCANS TRADE SKY

Col. Ayres Forecasts Slow Pace for Remainder of 1927 With Leaders Very Hopeful of Future

BY PAUL WILLARD GARRETT

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—Business will continue slow during the remaining months of 1927, with those who conduct it very hopeful of the future, in the opinion of Col. Leonard P. Ayres, vice-president of the Cleveland Trust Company and one of the recognized business prophets.

Col. Ayres reaches this conclusion for the reason that he sees two distinct sets of economic influences at work, each in conflict with the other. These are the declining trend of commodity prices, which tend to slow down operations, and the injection of easy credit in abundance, which tends to inspire activity all ways.

If commodity values continue their downward course, begun over a year ago, the gradual decline in the production and marketing of goods of recent times last spring, may not lift for a time. But not everybody would agree with the Cleveland prophet that "commodity prices have given no clear indication of having terminated their long declining trend. What he sees is a good many individual advances" in the commodity list, but these will not long offset the influence for a decline elsewhere.

Most authorities agree that the trend of commodity prices over the distant future will be downward, but some hold that the extraordinary 1927 upturn, in agricultural products, wherein the interest of prosperity an upturn was most needed, will at least temporarily check the recession that Col. Ayres anticipates.

Nobody knows what the price trend will be in the months ahead, but Col. Ayres certainly is right in his effort to figure out the probable price movements as a basis for a prediction on business. From now on the price curve is likely to possess a more definite barometric value than before, far as business goes.

All of which is very interesting, for the signs to the future which it indicates must be followed, and how the arrows will point as we come up to them around the turn in the road remains to be seen.

Aged Deaf Mute Taken to Jail After Mysterious Slaying of Wife

BULLET IN HEART FATAL TO WOMAN

Victim's Body Discovered by Her Stepdaughter.

Afflicted Physician Unable to Help Investigation

House Said to Contain Fine Collection of Guns

A mystery of death last night was solved within the heart of Dr. Carl Von Engel, 73 years of age, deaf, dumb and partially paralyzed, who was looked at police headquarters on a murder charge after his wife, Mrs. Caroline Von Engel, 68, was found dead in their home, 639 Spruce street, about through the heart.

Unable to hear or speak and barely able to shuffle along, Dr. Von Engel sat stolidly in his cell at Lincoln Heights Jail, where he had been taken after his wife's death. He was unable to aid them in obtaining information. Efforts to question him were fruitless and the officers at last declared belief that the shock of the tragedy had unhinged the aged man's mind.

GIVES NO INFORMATION. Later Detective Lieutenants Bradley and Berry took Dr. Von Engel to the scene of his wife's death. He was unable to aid them in obtaining information. Efforts to question him were fruitless and the officers at last declared belief that the shock of the tragedy had unhinged the aged man's mind.

The body of Mrs. Von Engel was found in the little hillside cottage on Spruce street, by her stepdaughter, Mrs. Agnes Lickmeyer, of 625 1/2 Yale drive, and after preliminary investigation at the scene police officers removed the body to the morgue as a result of a broken varicose vein. The coroner was notified.

When the coroner's deputies arrived and turned the body over they reported they found a jagged wound in her breast, at first thought to be a stab wound. No knife or other instrument which could have inflicted the wound was found near the body, the police said.

Partially reconstructed events as told the officers indicate that the aged physician, bent with years and in agony with his arthritis, wandered in her room at first thought to be a stab wound. No knife or other instrument which could have inflicted the wound was found near the body, the police said.

WANDERINGS OF MAN. Mrs. Lickmeyer told Capt. Davidson of Lincoln Heights police station she was in her home several blocks away from the house of her parents about 1 a. m. yesterday, when she heard a knocking at the door. It was busy and could not at once respond. When she did go to the door, she said, she saw no one.

The next step in the wanderings of Dr. Von Engel was his appearance at the garage of Mrs. Lickmeyer's husband, 1225 West Second street, the officers said. The doctor was seen walking away from the Spruce-street neighborhood.

Alarmed at the garage said they had difficulty in understanding the aged physician's desires, but he indicated he was looking for Lickmeyer, his son-in-law. They made the doctor understand, they said, that Lickmeyer had gone home for lunch.

Mrs. Lickmeyer said the first learned that her father during the morning was her father when neighbors so informed her. She said she immediately went to the Von Engel home with her husband and there, looking through a window, saw Mrs. Von Engel lying in a pool of blood. The police were immediately summoned.

REFUSED MEDICAL AID. Mrs. Lickmeyer told the officers that her stepmother had been suffering from various pains of the limbs. She said she had prevailed upon Mrs. Von Engel to have the limbs bandaged, but the latter, formerly having been a nurse, attended to herself and would not have a nurse or other medical aid.

With that information, Capt. Davidson did not disturb the body, but called the coroner's office. Then the deputies arrived and found the fatal wound in the woman's breast. The discovery of the body was about 4 p. m.

When Detective Lieutenants Hickey and Conacher arrived at the place, the aged physician had been brought there by the son-in-law and after preliminary investigation he was placed under arrest. Attempts were made to question him with the assistance of members of the family, the officers said.

According to Mrs. Lickmeyer, Dr. Von Engel formerly practiced medicine at Davenport, Iowa, and came to California about twelve years ago, when he and his wife established their residence at the Spruce-street address.

HAD MANY GUNS. Dr. Von Engel's daughter threw some light on the tragedy when she told police he father had become somewhat childish recently and spent much of his time fondling guns in a fine collection of such weapons. He has been seen to get up at midnight, she said, to handle some of the firearms in the collection. In view of this, detectives believe that the shooting may have been accidental.

An inquest into the death will be conducted at 3 p. m. today at the coroner's office. Mr. Thomas stated that action will be deferred until after the inquest. In the meantime, Dr. Von Engel and Campbell are at liberty.

Dr. Von Engel, however, has given his son-in-law permission to have his son-in-law to the death.

Williams was knocked out in the fight, he said, and he was taken to the hospital. He was taken to the hospital, he said, and he was taken to the hospital.

PROMOTER PLEDGES TO PAY CHORUS. The entertainment program opened with the light melody "Lone Girl," in song, solo and ensemble. The military band followed, and the Pugsley-Wigley Trio sang some snappy songs. Taylor Tolmie, comedian from the Belasco Theater, introduced the "Oh, Kay" chorus from the Mayan.

The show was bright and cheerful throughout and a fine introduction to what is promised to be the Shrine Luncheon Club's most prosperous and popular season.

Check Warrant Issued Against Theatrical Man. Charges of having passed a check for $1714 to pay for transportation for the "Exposures" company from Los Angeles to San Francisco, were filed yesterday by Dep. Dist. Atty. Scheinman against Daniel Leonard, manager of the company.

The company recently completed a run at the Hollywood Music Box and the company left for San Francisco. It is charged in the complaint that Leonard gave a check to H. P. Monahan, Southern Pacific passenger agent, for $1714, to pay for transportation, and that the check, drawn on a Hollywood bank, came back marked "not sufficient funds."

Dep. Dist. Atty. Scheinman stated he was informed that Leonard's bank account contained only a few cents. It was reported here that Leonard was arrested and is being held in San Francisco.

BOXER'S DEATH CHARGES LOOM

Promoter and Fighter May Face Warrants

Lack of Permit and Test by Doctor Admitted

Boy Succumbs After Bout for Purse of $2

As an aftermath of the boxing bout in which Harold Williams, 17-year-old Huntington Park lightweight, lost his life following a blow on the head, Dep. Dist. Atty. Thomas yesterday announced that manslaughter charges may be filed against A. W. De Weese, promoter of the fight, and James Campbell, the other boxer.

The dead boxer, who was making his first appearance as a professional for a $2 purse at the Cudahy Athletic Club in Bell, died yesterday morning at the Receiving Hospital after being felled twice by his opponent, Campbell, known in the ring as Jimmie Blake. An autopsy performed on the body of young Williams by Autopsy Surgeon Webb yesterday afternoon disclosed that he died of hemorrhage of the brain.

The promoter, De Weese, was questioned at length yesterday by Dep. Dist. Atty. Thomas and Deputy Sheriff Alameda. De Weese admitted, they stated, that he conducted the fight without a state permit and that neither of the two young boxers had been examined by a physician before the fight as required by the state law. However, he said it was not a professional fight, since no admission was charged, the police said. The fight, he said, was permitted to make voluntary contributions of any amount, which they also paid him 50 cents for parking their cars, he said.

An inquest into the death will be conducted at 3 p. m. today at the coroner's office. Mr. Thomas stated that action will be deferred until after the inquest. In the meantime, Dr. Von Engel and Campbell are at liberty.

STATE'S RIVER ENVOYS LEAVE

Colorado Commission Off for Governors' Conference

Water and Power Allocation Offers Greatest Problem

Delegation Accompanied by Corps of Advisers

The California Colorado River Commission, with advisers, observers and experts will leave various Southern California points today for Denver to attend the second session of the Colorado River compact, which assembles next Monday morning.

At the purpose of the conference, called by the upper-basin governors, was to obtain unconditional ratification of the compact by Arizona and California, other subjects entered into the meeting and allocation of power from the proposed generating plant at Boulder Canyon loomed as the most important topic of discussion. It is feared, will lead to the seven basin states to oppose the compact. The first order of business is division of water between Arizona and California, which is the most contentious point.

Leaving from Los Angeles are W. B. Matthews, commissioner; Councilman Cravell of the Department of Water and Power, Chairman John L. Bacon of San Diego and Earl C. Pound of Imperial are the other members of the commission. It is doubtful whether they will attend the conference. Others leaving for Denver are Charles L. Childers, M. J. Dowd, Mark and William Blair of the Imperial Irrigation District, and Dr. E. S. Jennings and Thomas C. Tager, president and attorney, respectively, of the Coachella Valley Water Users' Association.

COUNCILMAN WILL ATTEND RIVER PARLEY. Councilman Will, chairman of the City Council's Water and Power Committee, will attend the conference in absence of the City Council to attend the governors' conference on the Colorado River compact, which is to be resumed at Denver next week.

Esther Powers

Esther Powers, 30 years of age, arrested bandit queen, who was arrested Wednesday night with two male companions at 1930 South Union avenue, was identified by two witnesses in a police show-up at the Georgia-street station last night, according to Detective Lieutenants West.

It was said to have broken down during the inspection and wept when recognized by two women victims of robberies in which she is reported as participating.

Together with Len Fischer, 26, and Sam Stimmering, 30, taken into custody with the Powers woman, she was being held pending further identification on a charge of suspicion of robbery.

Art Club Opens Current Season in New Quarters. Heralding the greatest year in its history, the California Art Club opened its current season last night with the first of a series of monthly dinners in new quarters.

More than 100 painters, sculptors and workers in allied arts gathered with their wives in the new home which was provided for the club through the generosity of Miss Alina Barnsdall, to enjoy an evening of informal entertainment and map out plans for the coming year.

E. Boncoe Schrader, president of the club, was toastmaster at the dinner. B. M. Newhouse, art dealer, acted as emcee. The relations between the dealer and the artist, and urged the exhibition of more pictures by eastern painters in Los Angeles, and a closer bond between painters of the East and West.

Dr. Frederick I. Monson, Norwegian explorer and artist, acted for his studies of Indian life, told amusing anecdotes of his experiences among the Indians. Ralph Johnson, a student of the California Art Club, also spoke.

A series of activities already has been planned for the future, with a luncheon to be given on the 24th inst., an East Indian program on the 30th inst., and an illustrated lecture by Dr. Monson on October 7.

Jury Ignores Charge Police 'Planted' Rum. Failing to convince a jury in Municipal Judge Chambers' court that officers who arrested him on a charge of possessing liquor, had "planted" the intoxicants in his home, Joseph Garrett yesterday was sentenced to serve 180 days in the County Jail and pay a fine of $600.

Garrett charged Police Officers Brown and Smith, raising officers, with planting one gallon of liquor in his home at 638 East Fifty-eighth street, and then confiscating this as evidence.

After hearing a scathing denunciation of Garrett's story, presented by Deputy City Prosecutor Margie, the jury brought in a guilty verdict against the defendant following a forty-minute deliberation, but acquitted Mrs. Garrett on a like charge.

Doctor Slugged and Car Stolen. Dr. John Buckow, 1283 Third avenue, was robbed and his new expensive automobile driven off by two armed bandits last night, according to an investigation made by Captain of Detectives Edwards.

While he was driving two women home, the report says, he was stopped in the 6700 block on Washington Boulevard. One of the men struck him in the mouth, resulting in the loss of several teeth. The investigating officers says, and the bandits drove away in the doctor's car. The local investigating police officer turned the case over to the County Jail authorities after finding that it came under their jurisdiction.

GUN PLAY LACKING IN DRUG-STORE HOLD-UP. Five cameras, five bottles of expensive perfume and $50 in cash were reported stolen by two bandits who entered the drug store located in the Macchia Hotel at Washington and South New Hampshire streets last night. After taking what they wanted, a report to Captain of Detectives Edwards stated, the men walked away slowly. They did not produce a gun any time during the hold-up, although several customers were in the place. The store is reported to be owned by A. Beckman.

BOARD DENIES INVO LIABILITY

Answers Chamber Proposal on Owens Reparations

Long-Standing Offer to Buy Buy Land Withdrawn

Conference Plan Accepted, if Authorized

Replying to the recommendations made several days ago by the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce that the city complete the purchase of all privately-owned farm land in the Owens Valley purchase area, and that the question of reparations be tried out in the courts, the Board of Water and Power Commissioners yesterday declared that the city's water department many months ago extended and for several months maintained an official offer to buy these outstanding lands, and already has indicated a suggestion from Gov. Young that the reparations dispute be submitted to the courts for settlement.

The reply of the Water and Power Commission is contained in a communication filed yesterday with the directors of the chamber in answer to a communication received from the chamber. In its letter to the directors the chamber board of directors made several recommendations in connection with a proposed settlement of the Owens Valley-Los Angeles water controversy. The chamber's recommendation, it stated, were based on a report made by a special committee which had spent two days in Owens Valley.

LIABILITY NOT CONCEDED. After recommending that the constitutionality of the reparations claims be tested by court action, the chamber in its report to the city officials made the suggestion that if the reparations law is declared unconstitutional, then some method should be devised immediately to accomplish the purpose of just reparations.

Commenting on this section of the chamber's report, the Water and Power Commission stated: "Obviously, if the act (reparations law) is found void by the State Supreme Court, then there will be no ground for legal payment of reparations." In another portion of its communication, the commission emphatically states that it does not concede that the city has incurred any sort of legal liability because of land purchases in Owens Valley.

The Water and Power Commission communication follows:

One of the artists is William Darling, art director of the Fox Studios in Los Angeles. On a casual trip through Rancho Santa Fe about a year ago, he selected a two and one-half acre site near the Civic Center. The other artist is John A. ## SEMI-HOLIDAY FOR LINDBERGH

City Workers to Get Leave for Flyer's Greeting

Entire Parade Route Gaily
Decorated for Event

Program Plans Up for Final Approval Today

While Lindbergh day, which will be celebrated here next Tuesday, when the trans-Atlantic flyer pays a short visit to Los Angeles, cannot be designated a legal holiday for the city, it is expected to be given city-wide observance.

The City Council yesterday authorized all department heads to permit as many employees as possible to absent themselves from work to attend the welcoming ceremony. Neither the City Council nor Mayor has authority to decree an official holiday for municipal offices, such holidays for municipal observance being provided by State law.

The Council yesterday was requested to excuse city employees who are members of the One Hundred and Sixtieth Infantry from work in order that they may volunteer for police duty at Vall Field, where the flying colonel will land the Spirit of St. Louis. This request, which is expected to be granted, was presented to the Council by Col. Harcourt Hervey, commanding the military unit. The infantry regiment, or such men of the organization as volunteer for duty, will help police in patrolling the flying field and curbing the gigantic crowd expected at the airport.

FINAL PROGRAM PLANS

Final plans for the welcoming of Col. Lindbergh and his entourage here will be reached at a meeting of the executive committee this noon at the Chamber of Commerce. While the Lindbergh committee of the Chamber of Commerce is making final preparations for welcoming the New York-to-Paris flyer, work on decorating the flying field and the line of march of the official parade is being rushed by the Jones Decorating Company, in charge of this portion of the program.

The entire parade route from First and Broadway to Twelfth street, thence to Figueroa street and out Figueroa to the Coliseum, is to be decorated with flags and bunting and decorative plaques bearing the likeness of the distinguished guest. The entire decorating, including that at Vall Field, is expected to be completed by Monday night.

Announcement was made yesterday of the school children will attend the first welcome to the flyer when he lands his plane at Vall Field. Others will glimpse the flyer as he appears in the parade.

According to information in the hands of the welcoming committee, Col. Lindbergh will arrive at Vall Field Tuesday at 3 p.m., where he will be welcomed by Mayor Croyer and the official reception committee. After a hurried trip to the start of the parade in front of the Times Building, Col. Lindbergh will speak at the Coliseum and then will retire to the Ambassador, where he will address a banquet gathering that evening.

Col. Lindbergh, who will fly here from Reno, Nev., will leave the following morning for San Diego.

LINDBERGH BORN FOR

SAN FRANCISCO TODAY

PORTLAND (Or.) Sept. 15. (AP)—Col. Lindbergh will hop off from Swan Island airport here tomorrow about 5:30 a.m. in the Spirit of St. Louis, on his way to San Francisco, which he expects to reach at 2 p.m.

This was announced this afternoon by Donald Keyhoe, the aviator's flight manager, in a conference with city officials and a schedule of cities along the route was being worked out.

Col. Lindbergh and his aides remained in seclusion here today. Great crowds visited the Swan Island airport, where the Spirit of St. Louis was on display.

Col. Lindbergh plans to spend two to three hours of the time going south tomorrow in circling cities and towns en route.

He will go to Sacramento after his visit at San Francisco, he said today. Then he will hop to Reno. From Reno he will jump to Los Angeles and from there to San Diego. The city which he started on his world-famous Atlantic hop.

EMPLOYEES ASKED TO GIVE GUARDS LEAVE

In ordering out the entire personnel of the One Hundred and Sixtieth Infantry, California National Guard, to act as an escort of honor to Col. Charles Lindbergh, Col. Harcourt Hervey, regimental commander, has issued an appeal to all employees to permit members of the unit to have a half-holiday next Tuesday.

Every officer and enlisted man is ordered to report to the State Armory in Exposition Park at 12:15 o'clock for duty that day. Whole battalions will be transported to the field of Western Air Express to act as a guard in holding back the immense crowds that are expected to jam the field for the arrival of Lindbergh's plane between 2 and 3 o'clock.

Transportation units will be provided to take the troops from the field to the Coliseum by motor truck to aid other organizations of the One Hundred and Sixtieth Infantry who will be on hand there to assist in handling the crowds who come to hear the hero's address at 3:15 o'clock.

Because the turnout of the regimental band to prevent personal injury to spectators and property damage, Col. Hervey is urging employees to make possible a 100 per cent representation of the One Hundred and Sixtieth at the Lindbergh festivities.

Repeater Given Severe Penalty

Continuing his practice of meting out severe sentences to violators of the liquor laws, Municipal Judge Sheldon yesterday sentenced Frank Rietta, 32 years of age, to pay a fine of $1000 in addition to serving three months in the County Jail.

Rietta was taken into custody on the 14th inst., by Policemen Leach, Buckley and Smith at 1808 North Broadway, where a pint of absinthe was found in his possession. Secretary Caldwell of the special vice squad, apprised the court of two prior convictions against Rietta. Caldwell declared Rietta was convicted in the Municipal Court on April 28, 1926, and November 4, last.

Rietta waived a jury trial and pleaded guilty to the possession charge. The defendant was prosecuted by Deputy City Prosecutor Higgins.

Traffic Victim Dies of Injury

Crossing in front of a street car at First and Chicago streets early last night, Harry Schachter, 38 years of age, a pedler of 887 North Chicago street, was struck by a motor truck and received injuries from which he died a short time later at Hill-street Receiving Hospital.

Hirso Ajipori, 28, 138 Ross street, was driving the car, according to police. He was not held.

TIME GIVEN INDIAN HELD IN SLAYING

Chickasaw Charged With Murder Has Week to Find
Asserted Vital Witness

Seeking further time in which to produce a mystery witness whom he asserts will be in a position to give testimony calculated to exonerate Leonard Keel, wealthy Chickasaw Indian, on a charge of murdering Benjamin N. Brice, Attorney Bingham Gray yesterday succeeded in getting a continuance of the preliminary hearing until the 22nd inst.

Keel, educated 22-year-old tribesman from Oklahoma, appeared yesterday in Municipal Judge Baird's court on the charge of murder growing out of an asserted fight over who should dance with "Tootsie" Simpson, 18 years of age, of 1441 East Forty-seventh street.

It is said the slain man sought out Miss Simpson to dance with him but Keel urged her to substitute an Indian step with him and strode out on the dance-hall floor with her.

Following the dance, which occurred on the 1st inst., Brice was stabbed during a free-for-all fight in the dark near the dance hall. Keel was taken into custody on statements submitted to police by Brice and a brother, who accused him of the assault.

The hearing yesterday was continued to the testimony of Dr. Frank R. We, physician, who attended the victim. Dep. Dist. Atty. Clarke will prosecute Keel.

SHE LOSES BALM SUIT AGAINST KIN

Woman Who Charged Own
Brother With Alienating
Husband's Love Defeated

Mrs. Mary J. Silvia cannot legally blame her brother for the loss of her husband's affection, Judge Doran ruled yesterday in a decision in her suit against H. D. Brown for $200,000 damages for asserted alienation. The action was tried several days ago and taken under submission.

The case was unusual in that Brown is Mrs. Silvia's brother. She charged he had threatened to disengage her husband, Thomas S. Silvia, unless Silvia gave her up. Silvia, it was testified, was employed by Brown on a ranch. Another charge was that Brown had advised Silvia to use cave-man tactics in handling his wife.

Brown denied the charges. His attorney, Louis F. Pink, brought on evidence that the estrangement among the trio started with a disagreement over the care of the mother of Brown and Mrs. Silvia. Brown, it was said, had provided a home and a cash income for the Silvia couple on the understanding that they would care for his mother. He is said to have offered his sister by accusing her of not caring for their mother's property.

Ex-Coach Free of Marital and Legal Tangle

Taken into custody a week ago on charges of failure to provide for his minor child and conspiracy, Glenn C. Whittle, former football coach at Los Angeles High School, yesterday was at liberty, free of all judicial difficulties.

At request of the coach's former wife, who recently remarried, the failure to provide charge was dismissed when Whittle appeared before Municipal Judge George Bullock. Whittle's former wife said her present husband had agreed to relieve Whittle of further financial responsibility toward the child's support.

On the 8th inst., Whittle was arrested by W. J. Purcell, special agent for the American Railway Express Company, on a charge of conspiracy growing out of his asserted attempt to have $200,000 worth of spurious travelers' checks printed. These were to have been cashed in Mexico, the officer charged. Since that time, the action against the coach was dismissed for want of prosecution.

Train Beats Stork in Race for Newhall

A Southern Pacific passenger train, bound from San Francisco to Los Angeles, beat the stork by a few hours yesterday morning when it was stopped at Newhall to have Mrs. Jose Ragulor, an expectant mother, and her four small children taken from the train so that the woman might be given medical attention. A baby was born a few hours later at the Newhall Hospital and, with the mother, was transferred later by deputy sheriffs to the General Hospital.

Mrs. Ragulor, whose home is at 1000 San Brin street, San Antonio, Tex., was on the train with the four children, 2, 4, 6 and 7 years of age. Ominous callings of the stork caused the train crew to stop the train and call upon Deputy Sheriff Stewart, who made quick arrangements at the Newhall Hospital.

Deputy Sheriff Allen and Crotts-horn investigated and found that the woman had a through ticket to El Paso, but only $8 in cash. They took the four children to Juvenile Hall to be cared for.

Large Sum in Stock Stolen From Autoist

C. E. Halliburton of Coalinga, who described himself as vice-president of the Moludite Company of San Francisco, reported to police yesterday the theft from his car of a portfolio containing 240,000 shares of the company's stock, $1000 in checks and $200 in cash.

The theft, Halliburton said, took place at a filling station on Sunset Boulevard, where he got out of the car for a moment. He declared he had been followed from a northern city by two men in a coupe, whom he suspected of the theft. The stock Halliburton said, is not readily negotiable, as it is not listed on any exchange.

Protecting Your Schoolgirl Complexion
By VILMA BANKY

Use ONLY a true complexion soap on face

THERE are two rules in skin care which should be observed: (1) Keeping the skin clean and pores open. (2) Using a proved soap on your skin.

Present-day beauty culture calls for soap and water. But that means a PROVED COMPLEXION SOAP. Soaps made for general use are often too harsh for the skin.

Thus, largely on expert advice, millions use Palmolive Soap; touch their faces with no other. It is made of cosmetic oils. It is made for one use—beauty. It is made to beautify the skin.

Wash the face gently with Palmolive. Massage its balmy olive warm water; then with cold. That is all—it's the nature's rule for keeping that schoolgirl complexion.

Do that regularly, and particularly before bed. Never let powder, rouge or make-up remain on your skin over night. Note how much better your skin in even one week.

GET REAL PALMOLIVE. Get Palmolive today. Costs but 10c a cake. Use no other on your face. But be sure you get GENUINE Palmolive. Crude imitations, represented to be of olive and palm oils, are not the same as Palmolive. Remember that and TAKE CARE. The Palmolive-Pet Co., Chicago, U. S. A.

EGGS A LA BUCKINGHAM
Make five slices of milk toast and arrange on a platter. Scramble the eggs, having them slightly underdone. Pour over the toast and sprinkle with four tablespoons of melted mild cheese. Place in oven to melt cheese and finish cooking eggs.

SALMON FUDGING
One small can steak salmon, one tablespoonful butter, one cupful of bread crumbs, one cupful of hot milk, one-half teaspoonful of salt, one-eighth teaspoonful pepper, two eggs.

Remove skin and bones from salmon, and rub fish fine with potato masher, melt butter in milk and add bread crumbs and seasonings. Combine with the fish. Last add the well beaten eggs. Pour into a buttered deep baking dish and steam one hour. When pudding is done, turn out onto platter and pour the following sauce around it. Serve hot.

SAUCE
One tablespoonful of butter, one and one-half tablespoons of flour, State College, San Jose, and an alumna of the University of California. She pursued her graduate study at the University of Washington and later at Oxford University in England, having taken her Ph.D. at the former where she was an instructor.

BAKING CREAM
One cup of banana pulp, the juice of one lemon, one quarter cupful of sherry, or orange juice, one cupful of cream, one-half cupful of sugar, one-third package of gelatin, one-third cupful of cold water.

Soak the gelatin in the cold water. Add the banana pulp (pass the peeled bananas through a sieve) and let stand over hot water; remove from the fire and add sugar, and when cold, the wine or orange juice and the lemon juice. Let stand in a cool place, and when it begins to thicken, fold in the cream, beaten stiff. Mix and turn into mold and serve with sliced oranges or strawberries.

Concerning Corsets
When bottling fruits or eatups, etc., boil the corsets for a few minutes, so they become soft and pliable. Then they are easily pressed into the bottles, and when cold will fit tightly.

Do not use starch when stiffening articles made of organdie or gum arabic. This will give just the right stiffness without making it hard like starch.

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS

In the Soap Box
Cold water is first aid for egg stains.

Thoroughly dry the iron pot roaster before putting it away or it will rust. Wash stockings after each wearing so the perspiration will not rot the feet.

A slice of lemon in the boiler on washday will mean beautifully white clothes.

Green peas should not be shelled the day before using. They are very apt to become tough and indigestible if exposed to the air for any length of time.

Large Corsets
A large cork will surprise you with the uses to which it can be put. It is a splendid thing to use as a duster to apply polish on shoes. A little sand on a cork will polish aluminum beautifully. A cork dipped into silver polish and applied to the egg-stained or tarnished silver is a very simple and easy method of cleaning.

Cleaners
Alcohol will clean cloudy plate glass.

Dampened ashes will successfully clean steel knives.

Wax paper wrappings from bread are nice cleaners for the hot iron. A cloth dampened with plain vaseline will keep the iron in splendid condition.

Acts as a Filler
Enamel the refrigerator pan that leaks just a little. Give it a coat both outside and in and when that dries, give it another. All leakiness will disappear.

Test the Milk
Dip a knitting needle into the milk you suspect of having been watered. If there are no particles adhering to it when you remove it you may be certain that the milk has been watered and is poor.

Worn Carpets
Darn the worn carpets with a rug wool, being careful to match the color perfectly. It will greatly reduce the shabby appearance and it will wear much longer if mended before very far gone.

Taking Stock
It is about time to go over the kitchen utensils and pans and see what needs replacing and repairing. The kitchen is the workshop of the home and all tools should be A-1.

Vaseline Stains
Rubbing with kerosene will remove vaseline stains. If they are of long standing, use turpentine.

FRECKLES

Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots. How to Remove Easily.

Here's a chance, Miss Freckleface, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable concern that will not cost you a penny unless it removes your freckles; while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling.

Simply get an ounce of Othello—double strength—and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the horrid freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Barely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.

Be sure to ask for the double strength Othello as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove your freckles and clear your skin.

A number of well-known motion-picture scribes from the various studios, together with a large delegation from the Writers' Club, have made reservations for the evening.

Suspect Faces Added Charges
Mrs. Mary C. Dodder of Pomona yesterday signed a complaint charging Jasper J. Mayer, who was arrested here Wednesday, with embezzlement of $10,000, according to the Pomona District Attorney. She is said to have told the official that Mayer also obtained $20,000 from Miss R. B. Broughman of Los Angeles and left for a tour of Europe.

Mayer, who had been here ten days, when taken into custody, had reported to have asserted that he was at one time secretary to Newton D. Baker, War Secretary under President Wilson, and that he once won the Pulitzer Prize.

Local police are investigating the prisoner's record, a number of other women having made charges against him, according to the detective. At the County Jail, where he is being held, Mayer is said to have denied commission of any crime.

YOUR BABY and MINE

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope, forwarded to this office, will bring a personal reply.

GOOD TEETH AN INVALUABLE POSSESSION

The care of the teeth begins before the child is born. The mother's diet should contain the correct foods for her own nourishment so that she may supply the developing child with them. Children whose teeth are strong and white depend not so much on the diet during the prenatal period as the mother's diet was inadequate in some way.

The first teeth begin to form six weeks after conception; the second teeth during the latter months of pregnancy. The first teeth make their appearance in the mouth after five or six months after the baby is born, so that whether there are strong and white depends not so much on the diet during the prenatal period as the mother's diet was inadequate in some way.

Tape Cap for Bent Ears
Mrs. S. H. The baby has made a fine gain. If the baby does not take a bottle at 6 p.m., I would wash him for the 10 o'clock feeding. You can buy a small tape and net cap in any department store which has a section devoted to baby necessities.

These are just like a tight-fitting hood but are made of fine net and have an edge of cotton tape and strong cross-bars of tape over the ears. The baby can wear this at night so that when he rolls over the ears will stay in place. He can wear it in the daytime when he is sitting up if his ears stand out too far and the mother wishes to correct this tendency.

VETERANS PLAN SHOW

Men of Ninety-three Will Conduct Carnival
Public officials, civic leaders and ex-service men are sponsoring the carnival and frolic to be given at the Ambassador auditorium the afternoon and evening of October 22 by the Southern California sector of the Ninety-three Division Association.

It was announced yesterday by Quincey Fraser, chairman of the arrangements committee. Amos, who has expressed willingness to co-operate in the carnival, proceeds from which will be devoted to the care of disabled veterans of the division and their dependents.

Headquarters for the carnival have been opened in the Alexandria with Dick Ferris in charge.

BLUE-LAW FOES WARN

Preacher Says Statutes Would be Followed by Stricter Opp.
Laws closing theaters and places of amusement on Sunday will be followed by far stricter ones, Rev. George F. Enoch, Southern California representative of the Religious Liberty Association, declared at an anti-blue law meeting held at Trinity Auditorium last night. He said that they are only the first step of those who would make their next move one to compel universal attendance at church, and by restoring the famous Sunday laws of early American history.

"Sunday laws are wrong because they enter the domain of conscience," he said in the course of a talk which brought blue laws from the first one promulgated by Constantine in 325 A.D. to those of the present day.

"Twenty-four States now have Sunday laws," he said, "and I am sure that in California in several places, and unless some liberalities further usurped we will have to fight for them."

C. W. McDermott was another speaker. About 200 attended the meeting.

"Internal Poisoning"
Relief FoundOne of the recent developments of medical science which promises to relieve much of human suffering is the isolation and culture of the microscopical plant known as acidophilus.

Although too tiny to be seen with the naked eye, acidophilus has the power of displacing health-destroying, injurious germs in the digestive tract which cause food decay and internal poisoning.

Pure milk has been found by research workers in the laboratory of the Los Angeles Creamery Company to be ideal for the growing of these unique plants. Literally millions of these plants are grown in a bottle of milk and added as A-dofius milk, making a delicious health drink. A-dofius is also made in the form of a health-giving cream cheese. Doctors claim remarkable results when A-dofius is used regularly. A-dofius is made exclusively by the Los Angeles Creamery Company, and may be obtained from any of their drivers or by phoning the main plant, WE-9331 or the nearest branch plant.—Advertisement.

"GLORY" TWO ARE REUNITED

Raoul Walsh to Direct Victor McLaglen in Fox Film; Bebe Daniels Tumbles from Horse, Walks Home; T. Roy Barnes Reporter in "Chicago"

BY GRACE KINGSLAY
Raoul Walsh's professional movements, ever since he made "What Price Glory," are naturally a matter of much interest. So are those of Victor McLaglen, whose movements are imprinted on the deathless celluloid of that same picture.

Therefore it will doubtless interest the legions of their admirers to learn that the duo are to work together again as director and star, respectively. Walsh is to direct McLaglen in a picture for Fox called "A Girl in Every Port," and in it the star will have the role of a pearl diver of the South Seas.

It is likely that Greta Nissen will have the leading feminine role in the picture, although this is not yet definitely decided.

Work is to commence as soon as Walsh finishes directing Gloria Swanson in "Sadie Thompson" for United Artists.

T. Roy Barnes Chosen

That lively young scamp, T. Roy Barnes, who has been romping around in musical comedy so long that he is likely to have forgotten how to mind his camera angles, is going back into pictures.

And in a role that is entirely worthy of his talents, Frank Ursen yesterday put his directorial approval on Barnes for the role of the reporter in "Chicago," which Cecil B. De Mille okayed.

It was announced last night that Fervell Marley, who photographed "The King of Kings," is to have a little comedy relief in his life, inasmuch as he is to head Ursen's camera staff.

Bebe Daniels Writes
Now Bebe Daniels is ahead of the Prince of Wales. Once more Bebe has taken a tumble from a horse.

BEBE DANIELS

She tells us all about it in a letter, just received from her, written from the wide open spaces as exemplified in a desert location near Guadalupe, Cal.

However, Bebe has had a town named after her up there, entirely recompensing her for humiliation of the tumble.

"Here we are on location near Guadalupe," and really I am enjoying a lot of hard work," writes Bebe. "We are making exterior for 'Sib's a Bitch,' my next Paramount picture, and this means about ten hours in the saddle for me while the desert sequences are being made. However, I don't mind it in the least."

"We have a fine camp, a veritable city, which is more than comfortable. Our living quarters are real homes. We have everything right down to a motion-picture theater which we attend in the evening."

"I had a great thrill on my arrival. As we drove into camp we were confronted with an immense sign which told the world that this little city was 'Bebeville.' It is a real kick to have a city named after you.

A funny yet irksome experience came my way today. After we had finished work on the desert the members of the company returned to camp, where I had a short ride all alone. I had turned back for the return journey when my horse shied at a group of camels. It so startled me that I saw up everything and landed in a heap on the sand, unhurt but rather angry. The horse did not wait to ascertain the extent of my possible injuries, however, but made an ungallant dash for camp.

"I trudged back four miles into camp with tired feet and a sour disposition. I was forced to swim home from a boat ride for story purposes in 'The Campus Flirt,' but I can say that this was the first time in my life I ever had to walk home."

"I'll be back by the end of the week, I think. In the meantime everybody, including Richard Arlen, William Powell, Josephine Dunn, Paul McAllister, James Bradbury, Jr., and Billy Franey, also Clarence Badger, director, Lloyd Corrigan, scenarist, and myself, send best regards and good wishes to all our Hollywood friends."

Colleen Moore Tells Yacht

That lively little gadabout, Colleen Moore, evidently doesn't expect of her a very much chance for traveling within the next few months.

At any rate, she has sold her yacht, in which she and her husband, John McCormick, first Nations producer, journeyed through southern waters and over to Cuba last summer.

But that doesn't mean she has abandoned all hopes of future yachting. In fact, just the minutes she finds she has time enough for the sport, she is going shopping for a new yacht.

Corliss Palmer Signs
James Goldberg of the Chadwick studio has signed Corliss Palmer to play the lead in "Polly of the Movies," which is to go into production immediately.

The cast includes Gertrude Short, Jacob Roberts, Stuart Holmes, Jack Cheffer, Ross Dixon and Jack Richards. The picture is to be an elaborate production.

Lucille Irwin in It
That lovely young pink-gingham heroine of many a western, Lucille Irwin, who has just finished work in Neal Mart's special ten-chapter serial, "The Crimson Brand," to be released through Pathé, is to become a leading lady in a feature to be produced by Hart. The picture is called "The Outcast," and will be made in Canada.

Fatsy Ruth Miller Improves
The condition of Fatsy Ruth Miller, who was taken so ill while working on location at Mammoth Lake that her father had to go north and fetch her home, is much improved, according to a little chat I had with her mother yesterday over the telephone.

Pat is still suffering from acute bronchitis, and narrowly escaped pneumonia.

"If it hadn't been for Dr. Parker, Pat and I would have gone right on with her work," said Mrs. Miller. "She was cast to play the lead in 'Red Riders of Canada,' which Robert de Laey is directing, and she traveled fourteen hours in a bus to location. Arrived there she was very ill with a cold, but arose early in the morning. Drowsy in the lobby she met Dr. Parker, a great friend of ours, who was accompanied by Dr. Parker, to whom she was introduced. Dr. Parker just barely said, 'How do you do,' when he took a good look at her and his professional sense asserting itself, he told her she simply mustn't work, but must go to bed. The director insists that nobody but Pat shall play that lead, however, and so during the next fortnight he will be shooting the scenes in which she does not appear."

Frank Keenan Comes Home
Now that all the character actors are getting a great welcome, it isn't surprising that Frank Keenan has returned to Hollywood, following a long term on the stage in the East, and is preparing to go back into pictures.

Formerly a stage star, Keenan went into the silent drama about eleven years ago, starting in a number of Ince pictures. He changed to vaudeville for a season five or six years ago, and since then has appeared on New York's Broadway in Frank Dacey's play, "Peter Weston," following which he has had a number of stage engagements.

Japan Makes Many Pictures
Although the United States is the world's leader in the making of motion pictures, Japan produces more screen dramas than we do, according to the statement of Francis X. Bushman, who recently returned from throughout Japan and China.

Japan during the year of 1926 produced 855 featured productions, compared to the 740 made here. They have thirty-seven companies engaged in picture making over there. All of the films are for home consumption.

"Unlike our Hollywood," declared Bushman, "the producing units are scattered. Tokyo, Kyoto, Kobe, Nagoya, Osaka and other cities throughout Japan have their picture studios. Of the 855 pictures made, a great percentage have an American locale as the background. The productions are copies of the American methods. Our construction, direction, lighting and camera work are now theirs. The Japanese actors in their American drama dress as is American."

"Censorship also plays an important part in Japanese picture making. A committee of twelve censors all productions, the ones made in other countries as well as those made in this country."

"Over 100 fan magazines are published in Japan for the fan public."

CHAMBER OPPOSES ONE-MAN CAR PLAN

Following recommendations of C. J. S. Williamson, manager of the real estate, city and county planning department of the Chamber of Commerce, the board of directors of the chamber yesterday decided against the use of one-man street cars in Los Angeles. In a communication to the State Railroad Commission this morning the chamber will recommend that similar action be taken by that body, according to A. G. Arnold, secretary and general manager of the chamber.

BOLTON AND DAVIDSON GOOD TEAM

Effective Playing by Two Featured Principals in "The Ruined Lady"

BY EDWIN SCHALLERT

If you haven't previously seen "The Ruined Lady" or don't happen to remember this particular play about the spinster who had to go to rather extreme though quite irreproachable lengths to capture the bachelor who had been devoted to her for years, you will perhaps enjoy considerably the production of this comedy piece that is given at the Orange Grove Theater with Helen Bolton and William Davidson in the leading roles.

Miss Bolton is readily remembered for her performance in "Cradle" for her performance in "Cradle" are so clever in their work together that they should really get themselves a vaudeville sketch and tour in it, provided a new play can't be found that suits them. It is, at any rate, a pity that something of greater novelty than "The Ruined Lady" was not chosen for their first appearance.

This piece by Frances Sardstrom is, or rather was, bright. It has lost much of its luster. The wise-cracking lines particularly are not calculated to click brilliantly any more, but the idea and the comedy for which Miss Bolton and Mr. Davidson in repartee are responsible is pleasant and at times still diverting.

"The Ruined Lady" is decidedly more wholesome and harmless than the title implies, as those who have seen it will possibly remember. Just the thought is projected that the comedy is compromised when she happens to be found in the embarrassing predicament of spending the night at the home of the man whom she has loved for years, but who has failed to propose. You may recall that she had spent her more youthful years under the responsibility of raising her brother's two orphaned children, her man being their appointed guardian.

The proximity under this rule of duty had diminished their romantic feelings of their friendship—at least the man's—so after eight years of waiting and enduring peace daily encounters with him, the woman sets out to discover a way to renew their romance, the resulting complications being considerably greater than she had bargained for.

"The Ruined Lady" was once presented here at the Majestic Theater with Mary Newcomb in the leading part, and more recently with Gertrude Lloyd at another theater. In the present cast are Grace Travers who is always welcome to the theatergoers here, and whose presence and ability are dependable. Ross Forrester does a good bit of inscription in the final act, while Flossie Bramley, Maynor Aye, the Lorelei-like Lillian Hackett, Harold Nelson and Ernest Arthur are others.

Forrester, whose misadventures in "The Great Necker" have been amusing Belasco audiences for fifteen weeks. The play closes in another fortnight.

Crook Parlance is Prevalent

A vocabulary adequate for a law-abiding citizen to go slumming in the underworld may be acquired by patrons of the Playhouse this week where "Going Crooked," starring Edward Everett Horton, is winding up an engagement Saturday. The company, with several important additions to the cast, repeats the Hollywood Musical Box Theater Sunday night with "So This is Love."

J. Anthony Smythe and Una Allen of the "Going Crooked" cast are the only members of the company who will continue as supporting players in the Musical Box organization. New additions to the cast include Mrs. Reginald Denny (Bessie Haisman), Mabel Forrest, Irving Mitchell, William Farrell and Harriet George.

FORBES ASSIGNED TO "DOG OF WAR" FILM

Ralph Forbes, who has just completed the featured male lead opposite Lillian Gish in "The Raven," which Fred Niblo directed for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, has been assigned the comical male lead in "The Dog of War," starring Flossie Bramley, the $100,000 police dog, according to announcement made by Harry Rapf, M.-G.-M. producer.

Forbes, who has been under contract to M.-G.-M. less than a year, has risen rapidly to screen fame, appearing first with Lon Chaney and Benne Adams in "Mr. Wu" and later having the featured male lead in "The Trail of '99," the big northern picture directed by Clarence Brown.

COMEDIAN GOES BACK TO SHORT SUBJECTS

Renewing a fun association that resulted in no less than twenty comedies under the Educational banner, Al St. John, comedian, and Stephen Roberts, director, are now filming their twenty-first together at this studio. All of these are Mermaid comedies produced by Jack White. Despite the many comedies Al St. John and Stephen Roberts have made, the current picture is their first together in a year. Of late the agile comedian has been supplying the comedy relief for such dramatic features as "Open Range" for Paramount with Betty Bronson and Lane Chandler, and "American Beauty" for First National with Billie Dove. The current Jack White-Mermaid comedy directed by Stephen Roberts marks the return of Al St. John and his comedy bicycle to the two-reel comedy field.

"SURE FIRE" CHOSEN AS BELMONT COMEDY

The best play of Ruth Helen Davis at the Belmont Theater at First and Vermont will be "Sure Fire," an outstanding New York comedy of last year. The popular Murphy's Comedians, headed by Horace Murphy and Ruth Barille will be seen in this play.

The policy of the Belmont continues to be two shows nightly at 7 and 9 o'clock, with change of play each Sunday night.

FOUR PERFORMANCES GIVEN OF NEW PLAY

"Inspiration," a new play by Sam Rook, is being presented at the Playhouse, 1111 1/2 St. Street, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings of this week, under the direction of Josephine Dillon Gable.

The cast includes Paul Spier, Thelma May, Evelyn Adams, Eleanor Mather, Ralph Herman and Paul Buckenacker.

Comedy Nears End of Run

"ROMANCE" STORY OF ADVENTURE

Novarro Gives Spirited Characterization in Film Version of Conrad

BY MARQUIS BUSBY

To those who know and love the red-blooded stories of Joseph Conrad, "The Road to Romance," adapted from the novel, "Romance," now at the Metropolitan, this week, will come as a distinct disappointment.

There is an epic sweep to the novel, terrific suspense, and a beautiful love story set down in olden Cuba when pirates sailed the Spanish Main. Next to "Lord Jim" perhaps "Romance" is Conrad's greatest work. The Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer motion picture version is a pale reproduction of the original.

On the other hand if you have not read the novel you will find in all probability like the picture. It has scenic beauty, many spirited scenes and an excellent portrayal by Ramon Novarro. Certainly it is far superior to "Lovers," his last starring venture.

The screen story tells of a lovely senorita held captive in her castle in a remote village on the Cuban coast. Don Balthezar, virtual ruler of the little town, desires to marry her and gain her estate. At last a rescuer comes in the person of a brave young adventurer, a captain in the Spanish dragon. There is a daring flight to sea in a rowboat, a long refuge in a cave with Don Balthezar attempting to starve out the captain and the girl. And then the arrival of soldiers from Havana, just in time to save the hero from the gallows.

The material is there for good screen drama, and the suspense is never very great. This is doubly strange in view of the fact that the feature was directed by John Robertson, whose "Captain Salvation" came near being the best sea story ever to reach the screen.

Novarro displays a new ability at comedy. He is a roistering, adventurous lover who amuses the villagers with card tricks and naughty ballads. He has some sense that is particularly evident when he sets out a three-cornered romance, playing all the characters, how he won a pretty dancer from "Smoky Beard," a pirate. This is sure to amuse you.

Marceline Day is a lovely dark-eyed senorita. In "The Road to Romance" she displays a new power in dramatic characterization. Roy D'Arcy is very good as Don Balthezar, although not the author's conception of the character. Marc McDermott, Cesare Gravina, Otto Matsson, Jules Cowles and Bobby Mack give authentic portrayals.

Joe Farnham's titles are in keeping with the spirit of the novel. This is the day of the collegiates it seems, so it is entirely in keeping that Babe Wolf, his orchestra, and the Farnham and Marco entertainers should visit the campus. The band wears blazers and rah-rah caps, and the chorines wear post-poms. All very sprightly and entertaining.

Armand and Fere do all manner of amusing things in the tumbling line. John and Harriet Grithm dance nicely, and the Three Girl Friends warble college songs.

There is a delightful arrangement of Fucelli Arias which is a pleasant change from the ever-present jazz. Well played by Wolf and the Metropolitan band, too.

RACE CLIMAXES "BEN HUR"

The film, "Ben Hur," which is undoubtedly one of the outstanding products of the cinema world, will open at the Million Dollar Theater at noon today, for its first popular local showing.

It was filmed in Italy and California by special arrangement with A. L. Krieger, Charles B. Dillingham and Flo Ziegfeld, Jr. The picture was directed by Fred Niblo, and the history of its three years in work is a real-life odyssey of enterprise and adventure, culminating with the completion of the Antioch circus and race course, and the filming of the great chariot race 'twixt Messala and Ben Hur.

The novel was written by Gen. Lew Wallace fifty years ago. Its success was followed by its stage dramatization. The stage spectacle toured the United States for twenty-two years, remaining a vaudeville attraction. The silent drama has enjoyed a greater advantage than either the book or play, in a story that is so full of scenes and characterized by the pomp and splendor of the Greco-Roman milieu in the time of the Christ.

Young Romance Screen Player Returns in Act

Sarah Madden, after a year's sojourn in motion pictures, will return to vaudeville next week as one of the outstanding attractions on the new bill at the Orpheum Sunday. Miss Madden will only make a short tour of the Orpheum Circuit as she is now an enthusiastic screen player and continues to be in demand to vaudeville a sort of "vacation" leave. She will appear in "Souvenirs," a comedy from the pen of Sam Rook, former St. Louis newspaper man and dramatic critic and now associated with the Mack Senett studios. The time of "Souvenirs" is just after the Spanish-American War and Miss Madden plays the role of an Irish girl in the supporting cast will be found Mollie Fisher and Allen Stansell.

Elimination is One Way of Staging

The production of such revues as "Gay Parade," which will be visible at the Biltmore Theater for two weeks, commencing Monday, involves methods peculiar to this style of entertainment. Extraneousness are the creations of many brains. Too many cooks don't spoil the broth. It is not for an ample supply of theatrical chaff there would be no such exhibition as "Gay Parade."

The finished output is the work of elimination. The whole show at subsequent performances would have involved splitting the program in two halves and offering them on consecutive nights, the Chinese of projected Von Stroheim custom.

This is not the way that revues are fabricated. No plot or sequence to worry the producer simply selects those features that go best with the audience, speeds up the action and compresses the whole into a running time of three hours. Gorgeous scenery and opulent costumes go into the discard, to be used in some later ones.

Pantages Tells of Forum Plans

An innovation at the Forum, reopening Monday, is effected with the installation of new stages, the removal of the tall pillars which were there before having been necessary.

The purpose of the Forum is to conduct vaudeville on the proleg plan, with headline vaudeville and supported with a band. Tom Brown and the original six Brown brothers, together with a fourteen-piece orchestra, will open the house. The band on the stage and other Pantages vaudeville acts will be included in a tie-up with the feature picture.

The opening film will be "Paid to Love," featuring Virginia Valli and George O'Brien.

The cast includes J. Farrell MacDonald, Thomas Jefferson, William Powell, Martha Sterling and Hank Mann.

STILL AT IT

Lenore J. Coffey is still working on the adaptation and continuity of Maurice Watkins' stage success "Chicago," which Frank Urban is to direct as a special production for Ciel & De Mille. This vehicle is said to be one of the most difficult stories ever selected for screenwriting.

"ROMANCE" STORY OF ADVENTURE

Novarro Gives Spirited Characterization in Film Version of Conrad

BY MARQUIS BUSBY

To those who know and love the red-blooded stories of Joseph Conrad, "The Road to Romance," adapted from the novel, "Romance," now at the Metropolitan, this week, will come as a distinct disappointment.

There is an epic sweep to the novel, terrific suspense, and a beautiful love story set down in olden Cuba when pirates sailed the Spanish Main. Next to "Lord Jim" perhaps "Romance" is Conrad's greatest work. The Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer motion picture version is a pale reproduction of the original.

On the other hand if you have not read the novel you will find in all probability like the picture. It has scenic beauty, many spirited scenes and an excellent portrayal by Ramon Novarro. Certainly it is far superior to "Lovers," his last starring venture.

The screen story tells of a lovely senorita held captive in her castle in a remote village on the Cuban coast. ## Clara Bow is Egyptian Star

Clara Bow, madcap sapper of the screen, is seen at Grauman's Egyptian in "Hula," her newest Paramount starring picture, while the comedy offering in celebration of short-subject week is "Charley's Chances." The "Hula" is the story of an American girl, born and raised in the Hawaiian Islands. She falls in love with a young English engineer, who is building a dam in the tropics of the islands. Against the romantic background of "the crescents of the Pacific" she develops an interest in the love story, with the "Hula" girl doing some of her best work.

Clara Bow plays the lead opposite Miss Bow, and the supporting cast also includes Arlette Marchal, Arnold Koos, Madeline Trust and others.

On the stage at the Egyptian Theater Lynn Cowan and his team Jesters seem in "Pascou" idea, featuring Renoff and Renova and others.

Monte Blue to be Bowl Guest

Monte Blue, the well-known film star, will become a full-fledged Navajo Indian at the Indian ceremonials and musical pageant at the Hollywood Bowl this evening. The invitation was sent to Blue by the Warner Brothers studio by one of the Zuni runners. It was extended by Chief Pablo Ahlita as a recognition of Blue's work in support of the Indian cause. The adoption of Blue into the Navajo tribe will take place on the stage of the bowl. The actor also will be master of ceremonies. A complete change of program will take place at the Indian ceremonials, tonight being the third of the series. New dances by the primitive Indians during the first act have been arranged by the director of the pageant, who brought more than 100 Indians from Gallup, N. M., where he staged the intertribal ceremonials.

NEW MOROSCO COMEDY HAS SUNDAY OPENING

"Hell's Bells" success will be presented for the first time in Los Angeles when it opens at the Morosco Theater Sunday matinee. The author wrote "The Party" and "Applesauce," which local theatergoers will recollect.

The play just recently finished a run in Wallack's Theater in New York. "Hell's Bells" is a comedy of robust American humor. It is rich in possibilities and measures up, it is said, to the demand for clean and wholesome entertainment.

John Lital and Kay Hammond will be supported by Jess Morgan, James Bush, Mitchell Harris, V. Talbot Henderson, Ruth Handforth, May McCabe, Dorothy Shannon, Harry Garrity, Frederick Fynn. "Hell's Bells" is being directed by James Durkin.

ACTOR IS COMMENCED

Reviews from New York received here yesterday applaud Arthur Edmund Carew's performance in "A Man's Past," the George Melford production supervised by Paul Kohner for Universal, and starring Conrad Veidt as the latter's first American vehicle. The "Film Daily" authorizes the actor's organ, says, in part, "Arthur Edmund Carew gives an account of his all-too-seldom-and-worthy performance."

B. H. Dyas Company is Celebrating Its Thirty-Fourth Anniversary

Thirty-Fourth Anniversary of Founding of B. H. Dyas Company finds an eleven-story building of latest type under course of construction at Hollywood Boulevard and Vine street in Hollywood. It will be opened about the first of the year.

The Proudest Young Lady in France is Mary Ann Gibson, 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gibson of Los Angeles, who is official mascot of the local contingent of the Second A.E.F. Mary's mother is a French war bride. (Randall Henderson photo.)

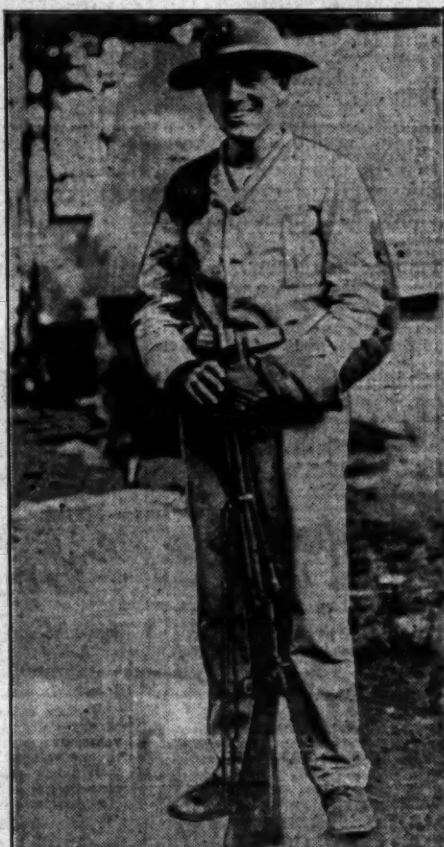

"There's Nothing Wrong With the Modern Girl," says Lola Layton. Lola wears no stockings and her skirts don't come far below the knee, but she's a noted breeder of White Orpingtons. She'll exhibit at Southern California Fair at Riverside this month.

The Original Ville de Paris Store, Now the B. H. Dyas Company, as it appeared in 1893, shortly after the founding by the late A. Fussenot. It was located on South Broadway, directly across from the old City Hall. The personnel of the first staff—whiskers, mustachios, stove-pipe hats, balloon sleeve and all—is herewith pictured.

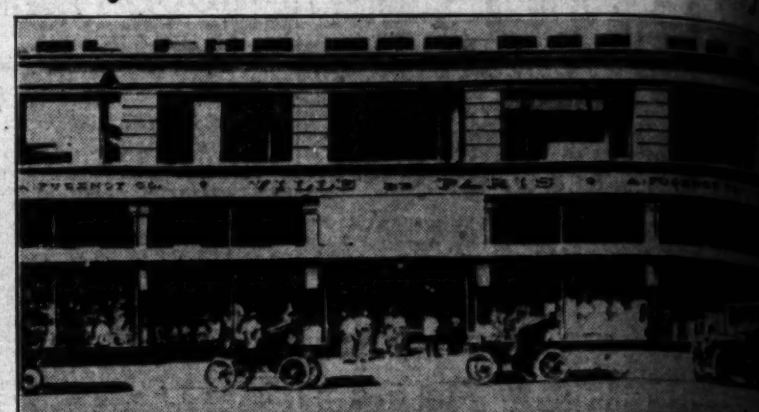

New and Popular Hostess in diplomatic circles is Mlle. Marie Antoinette Claudel, daughter of the French Ambassador, who recently arrived in the capital for winter season. Mlle. Claudel is an ardent sportswoman. (P. & A. photo.)

An Autographed Letter from the President, a gold medal and a Springfield rifle were among the prizes awarded Corp. Oren J. Tobey of the marines, 23-year-old marksman, who recently won President's cup. (P. & A. photo.)

An Experience Which He Doesn't Care to Repeat Was Recently Undergone by 17-year-old Vincent Taylor of Hackensack, N. J., who was hurled aloft on the tail of an airplane and forced to cling to precarious footing during a thirty-mile hop. The pilot didn't know he was on. Young Taylor is here shown in position he rode. (P. & A. photo.)

The B. H. Dyas Company Home in 1904. Note the antiquated automobiles in foreground.

The Present Home of the B. H. Dyas Company in Los Angeles is pictured. It was built in 1917 and is located at Seventh and Olive streets. A view of this building with the former homes of the company gives an idea of the growth of the city since the founding of the Dyas Company in 1893.

Career of Dreaded "Cat" Ends—William Mitchell, 27, who terrorized hundreds of Chicago women and was known to the police as "the cat bandit," has been captured and sentenced to long prison term. Here he is examining one of his many disguises. (A. P. photo.)

Another "cat" bandit, fall and winter, displayed a "cat" bandit, Marcellus, who was captured and sentenced to long prison term. Here he is examining one of his many disguises. (A. P. photo.)

OUR HISTORY IN PICTURES 822 The Story of Fort Phil Kearney: Part XIV Into the Trap.

by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD

AFTER RELIEVING THE WOOD TRAIL CAPT. FETTERMAN GAVE CHASE TO THE SIOUX AND PURSUED THEM OVER LODGE TRAIL RIDGE INTO THE VALLEY BEYOND. UNWITTINGLY, THE SOLDIERS RODE INTO A DEADLY AMBUSH AND WERE MET BY A HAIL OF BULLETS AND ARROWS.

IN AN INSTANT THE LITTLE COLUMN WAS IN THE MIDDLE OF A HORDE OF YELLING, PAINTED SAVAGES, WHO CLOSED IN UPON THE SOLDIERS FROM ALL SIDES. THE SUDDENNESS OF THE ATTACK THREW THE RANKS INTO DISORDER.

ENDING THEMSELVES HOPELESSLY OUTNUMBERED, THE TROOPERS TURNED AND TRIED TO RACE BACK TO SAFETY, BUT IT WAS TOO LATE. THE FATAL TRAP HAD CLOSED, AND NONE COULD HOPE TO RUN THE GAUNTLET UNHARMED.
